

The current Indiana Telephone Privacy Law has been a god-send. It is such a relief to have only calls that we wish to receive. We are no longer being bothered at ridiculous hours and during meal times. I am so happy to no longer have to race to the phone only to hear unwanted infringements on our privacy. Now I know that incoming calls are probably from friends or family - and they are worth answering. Please do not take away our peaceful phone privacy!!!